REAL ESTATE. REALTYSALES SPRIGHTLY

All Property Offered Last Week Except One Residence, Sold Well.

GOOD PICKINGS IN STORE

Much Attractive Property to be Offered This Week, Including Building Lots, Stores, &c.

Real estate agents did not offer so much property last week as the week before. but they sold more. Only one considerable of property was taken down. This was the residence of Judge Fitzhugh, at the corner of Fifth and Leigh, and then more than six thousand dollars had been offered for it. The agents, J. Thompson Brown & Co., are now negotiating the sale of it privately, with excellent chances of success. Other prop erty offered was readily sold at prices seemed to give satisfaction on all sides, this, in spite of the severely cold

Sales begin early this week. To-morrow at 4:30 P. M., C. L. and H. L. Denoon ngents, will offer No. 436 West Duval Street. This is a neat store and dwelling and will make a good investment. It is already rented to a good tenant. OFFER MANY LOTS.

Tuesday afternoon, N. W. Bowe will have a large number of attractive building lots on Grove and Floyd Avenues, for sale. This property is near the Belt Line. The sale will begin at 3:29 o'clock. Ten lois are on the south side of Grove Avenue, and thirty-two on both sides of Floyd Avenue. This property is in direct line of the city's growth.

Messrs, Pollard & Bagby, agents, have now! theresting alse for Wednesday at Messrs, Pollard & Bagby, agents, have a most interesting sale for Wednesday at 4:30 P. M. They will dispose of a no less famous place than the "Blooming Lily" Club house on P Street, between Thirties and Thirty-first Streets. Probably there never was a negro club house in or around Richmond, where so many fights have occurred. The property is a good business stand, however, and will doubtless attract hivestors. less attract investors.

Thesday afternoon at 1 o'clock. N. W

Bowe will offer at Henrico Courthous Bowe will offer at Henrico Contribuse a tract of fifty acres in Henrico county, at the function of the Creighton road and the Chickahominy River.

J. D. Carneal, at 4 o'clock, on the same evening will offer No. 8 East Clay Street, a very desirable detached brick dwelling. This is excellent investment or residence property.

THE "SKY-SCRAPERS."

THE "SKY-SCRAPERS."

THE public mind is turned at present particularly upon the marked development in building in Richmond within the past year. Not until this fail and winter did it ever hurt the neck of a Richmond citizen to see the top of any ediffice in the city. The pain is bearable now, though very appreciable as one tries to see the top of Murphy's Annex or the new Richmond just around the corner. When the American Bank building, which is now becoming conspicuous as day by day it climbs upward upon its steel rounds and reaches its limit of eight stories in front, and nine on the alley, and when the broad and deep structure which the Old Mutual will erect at the southeast corner of Ninth and Main Streets, looks down upon surrounding buildings from a ner, of Ninth and Main Streets, looks down upon surrounding buildings from a height of nine stories on Main and ten stories on the alicy, Richmond necks will almost pop as Richmond eyes gaze on their dazzling heights.

In the meantime a number of very attractive residences are going up in the West End.

West End.
Mr. O. J. Sands, president of the Amer-

National Bank, which is also to a new and magnificent home, has a residences built are Messrs. John Shin berger J. D. Reynolds, B. R. Eldridge, Tompkins, W. P. Knowles, two for J. E. Etchlson and Mrs. A. B. Blunt.

Among the residences but recently completed are those of Mr. Harry S. Bluswanger, costing approximately $10,000, and Mr. E. C. Pelouze.
